

Meridian Waste

Growing business and managing change with effective, flexible routes

Headquartered in Charlotte, North Carolina, Meridian Waste provides residential, municipal, and commercial hauling, plus roll-off, special waste, and construction/demolition services.

Challenge

- Managing a business growing quickly through acquisitions
- Changing volumes of waste materials during COVID-19 lockdowns and afterward
- Aging equipment needing replacement

Results

- Freed up 34% of their solid waste vehicles and eliminated 26% of their trash routes*
- Reduced route miles and related emissions by 21%*
- Phased out aging collection vehicles without the need to replace them

* Outcomes are market-specific

“When you change five thousand people’s collection day, it’s a big change. To be able to do it successfully speaks volumes of the EasyRoute tool. Especially in a pandemic.”

“EasyRoute was a key pivot for us. We’ve used it in all our markets to help us hit our goals.”

Patrick Messinger
Area President for South Carolina
